WILLIAM CARTER STUBBS PAPERS (I)

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS

Dr. William Carter Stubbs was a native of Gloucester County, Virginia. In 1872, he became professor of chemistry in Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical College, and six years later, State chemist of Alabama. He married, in 1875, Miss Elizabeth Saunders Blair of Courtland, Ala. Dr. Stubbs was made director of the Louisiana Sugar Experiment Station, New Orleans, La., in 1885, and later became Louisiana State chemist and state geologist.

Folders 1-69 contain genealogical notes and copies, by Dr. and Mrs. Stubbs, of old papers, including wills dating from 1619.

Folders 70-133 contain original papers relating to the Stubbs and Saunders families.

See also the following groups of papers which were formed from the Stubbs collection: Gloucester County Papers. Alabama Papers. Mississippi Papers.
