Form of material and dates: Family notes and data, York County local history, and reminiscences of Elizabeth Ironmonger (1891-1985), a local genealogist. Dates of the collection are primarily from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Of particular interest are a history of post offices in York County and a copy of the record of claims by York County inhabitants. Genealogical data includes the Sparrow, Winder, Hogg and Hopkins families as well as numerous others. Also thirteen typescript genealogies of chiefly York County families as transcribed by Elizabeth Hogg Ironmonger and her daughter, Thelma Hansford.
